

I fully support satellite radio and the freedom of both broadcasters and listeners to choose what broadcast and hear, respectively. Responsible broadcasters such as XM Radio do not breach any "good taste" in my opinion, and that would be the only reason I can imagine for further regulation.
Respectfully yours,

Roger W. Gilbert